

FORCED TO ASSIGN

A Well Known Illinois Firm Compelled to Suspend.

CAUSE OF THE GREAT CRASH

Keener & Pike, of Meredosia, Ill., Forced to Suspend—Liabilities Estimated at $125,000.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Jan. 12.—A tremendous sensation was created here by news of the failure of Keener & Pike, of Meredosia, grain dealers. The house is one of the oldest in the state, being formed years ago by Thomas and Fritz Keener. The former is dead, but the latter is now a citizen of Denver, and was reported to be worth several millions when he left this state. He turned the business over to his son, Charles C., and John L. Pike, who have since conducted it. They have branch warehouses in Perry Springs, Naples, Chambersburg and Versailles, and have been the heaviest shippers along the Illinois river. The failure is said to be principally due to the manner in which the business has been conducted, and the extravagance of young Keener.

Assets and Liabilities.
The assets are about $35,000 in personal accounts and property which will yield but a small part of their face, and the warehouse property, the value of which is very problematical. Of the liabilities of $125,000 F. Keener, of Denver, holds $35,000; various banks in this place, $18,000; and the Farmers' and Traders' bank of Meredosia, $10,000, while a large number of people of small property, who have made the firm their bankers, are among the losers. Irwin Dunlap, of this city, is assignee.

A NEW EMBLEM.

Justice Represented by a Rifle, Instead of a Blind Goddess with Scales, in a Kansas Court.

SPRINGFIELD, Kan., Jan. 12.—Judge Botkin opened his court at 11 o'clock Monday morning. He was escorted in to town by the soldiers who had been on guard at his house. Several deputy sheriffs, armed to the teeth, brought up the rear. No demonstration was made. The judge carried his Winchester, depositing it with Sheriff Guyman when he took his seat upon the bench. He seemed calm, but the hunted look which has troubled his friends of late was still perceptible. Outside the courtroom were several sentries. All Botkin did was to call the docket and adjourn the court until Wednesday. He went home in the evening without the soldiers. Gen. Roberts was of the opinion that a militia guard was no longer necessary. The judge was not well pleased with this conclusion, but he was in good spirits when he left. Four deputy sheriffs are with him at his house and will return with him on Wednesday.

A HUSBAND'S CRIME.

He Squandered His Wife's Fortune, Fraudulently Placed Her in an Insane Asylum and Kicked with Another Woman.

MUSKOGEE, Mich., Jan. 12.—Mrs. J. P. Andrews, who was placed in a private insane asylum near Detroit by her husband, who then eloped with Miss McGregor, a wealthy young woman of Jacksonville, Ill., has been released on demand of her sister, Mrs. G. C. Gilbert, of this city, and is now here. Mrs. Andrews is perfectly sane, but is prostrated with grief and the humiliation of her position. She married Andrews in this city and he squandered her large fortune and left her penniless in a madhouse, with two small children—the youngest of whom was born in the asylum. Andrews and Miss McGregor are living in Paris, France.

A BANK CLOSED.

All the Money Was Paid Out During the Day Preceding Suspension.

WILLIAMSBURG, Pa., Jan. 12.—The First national bank of Musky was closed by order of Bank Examiner Deagler Monday. Previous to the announcement of the suspension there was a run, during which between $7,000 and $8,000, all the money on hand, was paid out. Dela Green, the cashier and ex-bank examiner of this district, was arrested Monday night as starting disbursements were made. On opening the vault it was found that $20,000 in cash and bonds were gone, and a total shortage of $49,000 has been discovered. Green was held in default of $20,000 bail.

SHOT DEAD IN HIS HOME.

Kansas Farmer Slain by an Unknown and Muzzled Assassin.

TOWNS, Kan., Jan. 12.—Information has reached here of a deliberate and cold-blooded murder committed in Greenwood county Saturday night. William Coulter, a farmer living 10 miles northwest of Eureka, was murdered in the presence of his family. Just after Mr. Coulter had come from work an unknown man, masked, opened the door and stepped into the room with a revolver in each hand. With one weapon he intimidated Mrs. Coulter and with the other he shot her husband dead. There is no clue to the murderer or the motive for the deed. Coulter was a peaceable citizen and had no known enemies.

Robbed a Priest's House.

EMMETTSBURG, Ia., Jan. 12.—At Gilmore City masked men entered the residence of Rev. Father Sullivan and at the point of a revolver compelled the priest's housekeeper to deliver $200 of her own money. They then ransacked the house, but did not find any of the priest's money.

Demanding Retraction.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 12.—Lady Macdonald has instructed her lawyer to demand from the Toronto Globe an immediate retraction of the slander in connecting her name with a northwest land scandal.

Handle with Care.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Gen. Merritt in a telegram to the secretary of war expresses apprehension of trouble at the Tongue River agency unless matters are handled with great care. He has stepped into the breach between the Indians and the civil authorities with a view to pacifying the Indians. The trouble originally grew out of the fact that a star policeman, a white man made degradations upon an Indian's corn field so frequently that the Indian killed the star.

IN CONGRESS.

But Little Business Transacted in the Senate—Proceedings in the House.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—In the senate a document was presented from the interior department asking an appropriation of $150,000 as a deficiency to supply subsistence to the Sioux Indians. Senator Aldrich (R. I.) presented the remonstrance of the woolen manufacturers of New England against any agitation of the question of the duties on wool. Senator Perkins (Kan.) presented a communication from Mr. Ryan, the American minister to Mexico, to the late Senator Plumb suggesting that it would be a generous and neighborly act to return to Mexico the trophies of war captured by the United States troops in the Mexican war of 1847. Senator Teller (Col.) introduced a resolution providing for an international monetary conference, and it was referred to the committee on finance. The senate then at 1:37 p. m. went into executive session. At 2:30 the doors were opened and the senate adjourned.

In the house the attendance was fair. Speaker pro tem. McMillin presided, and ex-Speaker Reed was in his seat for the first time since the Christmas holidays. A resolution offered by Mr. Breckinridge (Ky.) repealing the last section of the McKinley bill and enacting in lieu thereof a section authorizing the president to issue a proclamation admitting free of duty from any nation in the American hemisphere in which no import duty is imposed, flour, cornmeal, and other bread product, preserved meats, oil, lumber, agricultural implements, and machinery, steel rails, etc., was objected to by Mr. Burrows (Mich.).

The call of states was then resumed, and the usual flood of bills was introduced.

Mr. Simpson (Kan.) asked unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of a resolution rectifying allegations that the department of agriculture is made the harbor of political enemies, and that crop reports are made to boards of trade and the market wreckers and operators before they are conveyed to the knowledge of husbandmen, and providing for a special committee of five members to inquire into the workings of the department and into the truth of these allegations. Referred to committee on rules.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Speaker Crisp being still unable to preside over the deliberations of the house, his duties were again performed by the speaker pro tem. Bills were referred increasing the pensions of those soldiers who have lost the use of eyes and limbs, and for the development and encouragement of silk culture in the United States under the direction of the secretary of agriculture. The house then adjourned.

Among the departmental and other communications laid before the senate by the vice president were three agreements for the cession of their lands made with the Shoshone and Arapaho Indians of the Wind river reservation in Wyoming, the Indians of the Pyramid Lake reservation and the Kickapoo Indians of Oklahoma. They were all referred to the committee on Indian affairs. Many petitions in favor of the loan of $5,000,000 to the world's fair on condition of its being kept closed on Sunday were presented and referred.

MANY BADLY HURT

Awful Plunge of the Train on the Monon Route.

DOWN A STEEP EMBANKMENT

A Terrible Accident Near Crawfordville, Ind., in Which Five Persons Lose Their Lives.

CRAWFORDVILLE, Ind., Jan. 12.—The north bound mail train on the Monon road, en route from Louisville to Chicago, went over a steep 60-foot embankment 2 miles north of Crawfordville Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The accident occurred on a curve, where the train was running at a rate of 35 miles an hour, and was due to a loose rail, two section hands being at work on it at the same time.

Broken Into Bits.
The engine and two baggage cars remained on the embankment, the mail, the smoker, the ladies' car and the parlor car "Minerva" going over and tearing themselves to pieces in the mad rush among the stumps, bowlders and trees. The cars fortunately separated as they rolled down the embankment and were broken to pieces at different points. The smoker and ladies' car took fire and a baby belonging to a woman in the City Club Vandeville Burlesque Company of New York is said to have been burned.

Horrible Scenes.

The ladies' car rolled over three times, and in this the slaughter was done. At one of its turns a large stump was struck, and this, crashing through the car, dismembered Ben Hamburg and Mme. Van Bokay, passengers. As soon as the wreck occurred Engineer James Doyle ran back to Crawfordville and announced the catastrophe. Hundreds of citizens were soon upon the scene, lending every assistance to the wounded. Nearly every one on the train was more or less injured and several are reported dying.

The scenes at the wreck were terrible. Bleeding and senseless bodies were being carried from the burning cars and frenzied men and women rushed frantically to and fro looking for missing friends and relatives. Words would be but barren sounds to describe the horror, and it is best told in the following list of killed and wounded:

The Killed.

C. N. Check, Greenfield, Ind.; Mrs. Rosa Evans, Greenfield, Ind.; head and side crushed; Nellie Hanks, of New York, member of the City Burlesque Company; Ben Hamburg, of Cincinnati, a drummer, horribly mangled; Mme. Erika Van Bokay, danseuse, City Burlesque Company, horribly mangled.

All Were Injured.

Mrs. Robert Fulton, stage name Stella Clifton, of the burlesque company, legs fractured, legs and back; Gus Rogers, hurt in the back; Cora White, of Syracuse, ear torn off and side badly crushed; Fannie Everett, St. Louis, internally injured and bruised; Olive Lewis, bruised about head; Helen Love, spinal injuries; Harry C. Bryant, of Philadelphia, head bruised, back badly sprained; Madge Larned, Pittsburgh, head badly hurt; Miss Lassar, arm and side injured; Miss Reynolds, leg broken; Curtis Speck, fingers cut off; Paul Allen, head crushed; Thomas Maico, internal injuries. The above are all members of the City Burlesque Company.

Other Victims.

Mrs. D. Brecht, of Louisville, face mangled; William Bishop, brakeman from Lafayette, severely burned about the head, shoulders and back; John Bils, conductor, internal injuries; Melvin McKee, of Chicago, hip and back hurt; E. Whiteside, spine fractured, very serious; J. J. Enright, of Chicago, knee and head hurt; Nat Beatty, of Crawfordville, internally injured; John Faust and William Hall, of Crawfordville, cut about the head; Mrs. Fox, of New Albany, two fingers in hand and leg badly cut; Eugene Dyer, of Lafayette, head cut; C. W. Loden, of Salem, Ind., badly crushed; C. F. Hoyt, of Indianapolis, head, side and back; Eva Marshall, of Ellettsville, side and face crushed; Mrs. Ann Hibbs, Wheatfield, face mangled; Ira Hibbs, same address, left arm broken, right hand cut off; Presley Davis, of Wheatfield, side mangled; Charles Thompson, Weston, head bruised; M. G. Rutledge, porter of chair car, face mangled; Dave Millberry, Romney, eye gouged out and arm and leg broken; C. F. Cornwell, roadmaster, Bloomington, back hurt and internal injuries; John Winchester, Louisville, baggage master, back hurt; Express Messenger Cutler, Louisville, internal injuries; W. N. Snyder, neway, Chicago, shoulder broken.

"Chop Off My Leg."

Two mangled corpses were taken out whose identity could scarcely be ascertained. One poor mangled fellow was found pinned down under a pair of trucks with both limbs mangled. "If the flames are going to reach me chop off my leg with the ax," he said coolly and calmly. He was rescued from his peril.
